

Article II. Membership

Section 1. Members. The membership of the corporation shall consist of those persons who are incorporators or initial directors set forth in Certificates of Incorporation and who are hereafter received in or elected to membership as provided.

Section 2. Election of Members. A person, partnership or corporation may be elected a member upon being proposed for membership by a member, by written application to the President or Secretary, and favorably passed upon by the Committee on Admissions and upon receiving a majority vote of the members present at a meeting of the corporation or at a meeting of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee

Section 3. Resignation. Any member may withdraw from the Corporation after fulfilling all obligations to it by giving written notice of such intention to the Secretary, which notice shall be presented to the Board of Directors or Executive Committee by the Secretary at the first meeting after its receipt.

Section 4. Suspension. A member may be suspended for a period or expelled for cause, such as a violation of any of the by-laws or rules of the Corporation, or for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the Corporation. Action may be initiated by any member, in writing, to the Board of Directors, for their consideration. Suspension or expulsion shall be by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the membership of the Board of Directors, provided that a statement of the charges shall have been mailed by registered mail to the member under charges at his or her last recorded address at least three (3) days before the final action is taken thereon. This statement shall be accompanied by a notice of the time when and place where the Board of Directors is to take there action. The member shall be given an opportunity to present a defense at the time and place mentioned in the notice.

Section 5. Honorary Members. The Board of Directors may elect honorary members by a two thirds (2/3) vote of the member present at a meeting of the Board of Directors. Honorary members shall be exempt from the payment of fees and shall be entitled to all the privileges of regular members, except the right to vote or hold office.

Section 6. Certificate. The certificate of membership and the rights and privileges of a member shall not be assignable.

Section 7. Vote. Each member shall have only one vote at a meeting of the members.
